

A rustic wooden barn door with a central glass panel, flanked by lanterns and floral arrangements. The door is made of weathered wood and has a central glass panel with a brass handle. On either side of the door, there is a lantern hanging on the wall. To the left of the door, there is a floral arrangement of white and pink roses. To the right of the door, there is a large bouquet of white and pink roses in a metal milk can. A small green topiary tree is in a metal planter to the right of the door. The floor is made of stone tiles.
